

Darjean Jones

Chenin Blanc, 2019

ABOUT THE WINE

What happens when you combine Southern hospitality, a PhD in plant pathology, and a passion for quality? Meet Dawna Darjean Jones, the winemaker behind Darjean Jones Wines. She's dedicated to handcrafting small batches of extraordinary wine like this lush Chenin Blanc. Expect aromas of herbs and green apple.

DID YOU KNOW?

Chenin Blanc is an extremely versatile grape; it can be used to make sweet, dry, or sparkling wines.

ABOUT THE REGION

The warm days and cool evenings of Clarksburg, California bear a strong resemblance to the climate of California's famous Sonoma Valley. These conditions create high-acid grapes that yield complex, refreshing wines. Clarksburg grapes are often incorporated into wines from prestigious regions like Napa to balance out their flavors.

Clarksburg, California

AT A GLANCE

Variety: Chenin Blanc

Vintage: 2019

Vineyard: Heringer Estates

Oak: No oak (stainless steel)

Alcohol: 12.45%

Farming: Sustainable

To learn more about this wine, visit blueapron.com/wines/258

TASTING NOTES

This dry Chenin Blanc shows surprising savory character. On the nose, green herbs and stony minerality are balanced out by refreshing lemon zest and tart green apple. On the palette, the fruits are mellow and ripe.

1) Look at the Color

2) Swirl & Smell

Green apple

Green pepper

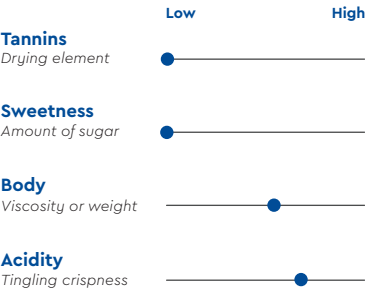

Wet Stones

Lemon Zest

3) Taste & Savor

TASTING TIP

Notice the way this wine feels in your mouth. That lush, creamy texture is one of the reasons that Chenin Blanc is adored by wine lovers.

4) Pair and enjoy!

Full & Savory

Match this wine's symbol to a Blue Apron Meal

A savory white wine with some weight is just what you need to stand up to rich foods. Try pairing this with a mac n' cheese or creamy pasta – the acidity will cut through the creaminess.